

Whole Life Insurance

can pay money to your family if you die. It can help them with basic living expenses, final arrangements, tuition and more.

How does it work?

You can keep Whole Life Insurance as long as you want. Once you've bought coverage, your cost won't increase as you age. The benefit amount stays the same, too — it doesn't decrease as you get older. That means you get protection during your working years and into retirement.

Whole Life Insurance also earns interest, or "cash value," at a guaranteed rate of 4.5%.^{*} You can borrow from that cash value, or you can buy a smaller, paid-up policy — with no more premiums due.

What's included?

A "Living" Benefit

You can request an early payout of your policy's death benefit (up to $150,000 maximum) if you're expected to live 12 months or less. It would reduce the benefit that's paid when you die.

Who can get coverage?

You	You can purchase a minimum benefit amount of $2,000 if you're between 15 and 80 years old. The cost is based on your age when coverage is issued and whether you use tobacco.
Your spouse:	Available for your spouse (age 15-80), even if you don't purchase coverage for yourself. If you leave your employer, you can keep this coverage and be billed at home. You can purchase a minimum benefit amount of $2,000. The cost is based on your spouse's age and whether they use tobacco.
Your spouse: 20-year Term Life coverage	Available for your spouse (age 15-50). This benefit is not available if you purchase individual spouse coverage. However, you must purchase coverage for yourself to add this benefit. Choose a benefit amount from $5,000 to $25,000, as long as it's not more than your own coverage. If you cancel your coverage, your spouse's benefit will also be cancelled.
Your children:	Your children and grandchildren can have individual coverage, even if you don't get coverage for yourself. If you leave your employer, your children can keep their coverage. You can purchase a benefit amount of up to $50,000 for each child.

Why should I buy coverage now?

- It's more affordable when you're younger. Once you've bought coverage, your cost stays the same as long as you keep it.
- The cost is conveniently deducted from your paycheck.
- Whole life gives you valuable protection in addition to any term life insurance you might have.

Your children: Term Life coverage	You can also purchase a Child Term Life benefit up to $10,000, which can be added to an employee or spouse policy. Eligible children, legally adopted children and stepchildren are covered from 14 days until the earlier of their 25th birthday or the date your policy ends. At that time, the child has a right to buy an individual Whole Life policy at up to 5 times the amount of their rider.

When you buy life insurance, you name the people who will receive the money from the policy when you die. These people are called beneficiaries. Unum will pay benefits to the beneficiaries in one lump sum; however, if a beneficiary is a minor (typically younger than 18, but this may vary by state) and no financial guardian has been appointed, the benefits will be paid to that minor through a Unum Retained Asset Account.

A Unum Retained Asset Account is a fund held in Unum's general account for the named minor beneficiary. The account accrues interest regardless of Unum's actual investment performance, and, while not FDIC insured, the account funds are fully guaranteed by Unum. For more information about the retained asset account, please contact Unum.

*The policy accumulates cash value based on a non-forfeiture interest rate of 4.5% and the 2001 CSO mortality table. The cash value is guaranteed and will be equal to the values shown in the policy. Cash value will be reduced by any outstanding loans against the policy. Eligible employees must be actively at work to apply for coverage. Employees are not considered actively at work if they are on a leave of absence.

Employees must be U.S. citizens, Canadian citizens working in the U.S., or have a Green Card to receive coverage.

Effective date of coverage

Your coverage will be effective on the first day of the month in which payroll deductions begin.

Exclusions

Life Insurance benefits will not be paid for deaths caused by suicide. If within two years from the policy effective date, the insured commits suicide, whether sane or insane, Unum will not pay the death benefit. The amount payable by us in place of all other benefits, shall be the sum of premiums paid, without interest, less the sum of any debt and the cost of any riders.

Termination of coverage

All coverage under this policy will terminate on the earliest of the following:

- Written request by you to terminate the policy;
- The insured dies;
- The policy matures; or
- The loan value exceeds the guaranteed cash value of this policy.
